

NORWOOD NEWS .ORG

Out&About

by Judy Noy

Literary Arts Fellowship Opportunity

The Bronx Writers Center, a program of the Bronx Council on the Arts, invites Bronx writers to apply for the 2009-10 Literary Arts Fellowship and Residency. Two nine-month fellowships are awarded annually. Completing a community service project is required as part of a residency. An information session will be held Aug. 4 from 5 to 6:30 p.m. at Longwood Art Gallery at Hostos Community College, 450 Grand Concourse. For more information on eligibility or to attend the session, applicants may RSVP to the BCA web site at www.bronxarts.org or to Maria Romano at (718) 931-9500 ext. 21, or email maria@bronxarts.org. Applications must be received by 5 p.m., Sept. 14.

Onstage

The Bronx Council on the Arts presents An Evening of Song and Salsa with Ray Viera y Trombao, July 29 at 7:30 and 9 p.m. at 52 Playground Park/Teatro Miranda. For more information, call (718) 931-9500.

Events

The Bronx Culture Trolley, a replica of a 20th-century trolley, transports visitors on the first Wednesday of every month (except January and September), to Bronx hot spots, ending at Sweetwaters Bar & Grill with jazz, and food and drink. A reception is held at the Hostos Art Gallery, 450 Grand Concourse (at 149th St.) at 5 p.m., followed by three trolley departures at 5:30, 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. New attractions are added monthly. Trolley ride is free. Riders can get on and off at any scheduled stop and spend as much time as they wish at any or all of the featured venues. Venues and activities vary each month. The next trip is on Aug. 5. For more information or to confirm, call (718) 931-9500 ext. 33 or log on to www.bronxarts.org.

Exhibits

The Longwood Art Gallery at Hostos Community College, 450 Grand Concourse at 149th Street, hosts two exhibitions: Bangin', which includes the work of nine emerging women artists, on view in the Main Gallery; and Linger, an installation of video, sculpture and performance, on view in the Project Room; both through Aug. 6. For more information and hours, call (718) 518-6728.