

The New York Times

Thursday, October 30, 2010

Arts

Spare Times

by Ann Mancuso

Bronx Council on the Arts “BomPlenazo 2010,” a celebration of Puerto Rican-African music and dance, is the centerpiece of activities on Wednesday at South Bronx cultural organizations that are on the route of the Bronx Culture Trolley; sponsored by the Bronx Council on the Arts. The route begins at Hostos Community College, 450 Grand Concourse, at 149th Street, Mott Haven, where events include an art exhibition, a dance workshop and a concert. Other stops include the Bronx Museum of the Arts, the Gordon Parks Gallery and BronxArtSpace. The trolley begins at 5 p.m.; most events are free, but some require admission. bronxarts.org. ■