

The Best of the Bronx

Krasdale Art Gallery Exhibit features work by nine BRIO Artists

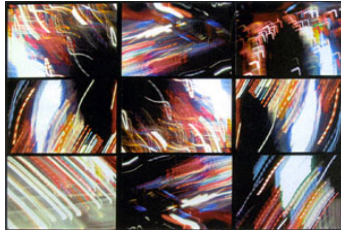

Beth Brideau
24000'1, 2003
Watercolor on paper, 4 x 6 inches

Howard T. Cash
Resurrection, 2005
Cibachrome print

Linda Cunningham
South Bronx Saga 2, 2005
Transfer, graphite

Luis Fonseca
Noho Star, 2005
Color photographs

Daniel Hauben
View from Bx River Parkway III, 2005
Oil on Canvas, 16 x 20 inches

Agnes Murray
Roanheads, 2005
Monoprint, 20 x 26 inches

Helene Brandt
Budding Leaf, 2005
Reinforced leaf, root, seed pod,
springs, steel -- 30 x 11 5 inches

Wanda Ortiz
Untitled, 2005
Oil on Canvas

Ron Turner
Old Lady and Child,
Photographs of Mexico , 1980

In celebrating the renewed vitality of the Bronx art community, this exhibition showcases a multitude of approaches to living and working as an artist in the Bronx. In an attempt to show the great diversity of Bronx art, this show samples work on oil painting, metal sculpture, lithography, collage, watercolor, and photography by nine past recipients of the Bronx Council on the Arts' prestigious BRIO Award.

The show's artists are: Helene Brandt, BRIO winner for sculpture; Beth Brideau, BRIO winner for painting; Howard T. Cash, BRIO winner for photography; Linda Cunningham, BRIO winner for printmaking; Luis Fonseca, BRIO winner for digital art; Daniel Hauben, BRIO winner for painting; Agnes Murray, BRIO winner for printmaking; Wanda Raimnudi-Ortiz, BRIO winner for painting; and Ron Turner, BRIO winner for photography.

The Best of the Bronx was on view at the Krasdale Art Gallery January 5th through mid-February, 2006. Krasdale Gallery is located within Krasdale Foods Inc. at 400 Food Center Drive in the Hunts Point area of the Bronx.